Fee Comparison with other
Alberta Municipalities

- Wheatland County has compiled a comparison of various municipalities Planning & Development Fees.
- The purpose is to show how Wheatland County compares with other Alberta municipalities that are comparable in economics and population, when looking at specific Planning & Development fees.
- It should be noted that a number of factors play a role in determining the fee for specific applications. This is a guide and should only be used as a reference as situations may result in a change of fees.
- The fees identified are subject to change by each individual municipality. If you are inquiring about a specific application please contact the County Office.
